

its kinda funny how the fcc gets mad when we download music but they dont feel bad about kicking them of the radio declining their salary by 5 times what they were originally making, making them go to satelite radio where their paid alot less